NOTICE OF MEMBERSHIP IN PROPERTY OWNER'S ASSOCIATION CONCERNING THE PROPERTY AT:

(Street Address)

EMERALD BAY HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

As purchaser of property in the residential community in which this property is located, you are obligated to be a member of a property owners' association. Restrictive covenants governing the use and occupancy of the property and all dedicatory instruments governing the establishment, maintenance, or operation of this residential community have been or will be recorded in the Real Property Records of the county in which the property is located. Copies of the restrictive covenants and dedicatory instruments may be obtained from the county clerk.

You are obligated to pay assessments to the property owner's association. The amount of the assessments is subject to change. Your failure to pay the assessments could result in enforcement of the association's lien on and the foreclosure of your property.

Section 207.003, Property Code, entitles an owner to receive copies of any document that governs the establishment, maintenance, or operation of a subdivision, including, but not limited to, restrictions, bylaws, rules and regulations, and a resale certificate from a property owners' association. A resale certificate contains information including, but not limited to, statements specifying the amount and frequency of regular assessments and the style and cause number of lawsuits to which the property owner's association is a party, other than lawsuits relating to unpaid ad valorem taxes of an individual member of the association. These documents must be made available to you by the property owners' association or the association's agent on your request.

Real Estate Agent Responsibilities Relating to a Real Estate Transaction

Between a Selling Member/Owner and A Prospective New Member/Owner Buyer

- Emerald Bay Club Non-Member Real Estate Agents must show their POCKET CARD identification as a Real Estate Agent to the security staff in order to gain access to Emerald Bay.
- Buyer's Real Estate Agent must get the completed application to the Emerald Bay Club Business Manager within a day of the executed contract date and complete the check list.
- Buyer's Real Estate Agent must provide the office with dates that the buyer will be available to return to the Club for an interview with the Membership Committee. If the initial background check results do not meet qualifying standards, the Buyer's Real Estate Agent will be notified by the Membership Committee Chairperson within 3 business days after receipt of the application. No application will be processed unless it is complete.
- Buyer's Real Estate Agent must call the Security Gate Staff to schedule inspections and appraisals as may be required in the contract. No inspections will be allowed until the gate has received initial approval from the Business Manager's office.
- Buyer's Real Estate Agent is responsible for following up with the Business Office to verify status of the application.

As a Real Estate Agent you are responsible for obtaining all the appropriate signatures on the TREC documents required to complete and close a transaction. In all Real Estate Transactions involving property sold or leased to non-members of Emerald Bay Club, this application and interview process is a mandatory requirement by the State of Texas for Private Clubs selling Alcoholic beverages. Hence, this becomes your responsibility to assure the documents are completed and processed.

This Process was adopted and approved by the Emerald Bay Board of Directors on 03/21/2005.
